2 Reference is also invited to Lawley's note dy 29 & 28, in Enl 57-28(5) about the removal of the restriction against the voting of ex-officio members. A reply may perhaps be sent that the procedure for ex-officio members will be the same as that followed at the latest note dy 26 11 29 has to be forwarded.

11 4 29

Under the rules as they stand there is no restriction against ex-officio members nominated candidates from taking part in voting for the President or Vice Presidents place. The Rules may be suitably amended if a similar reply had been proposed on the reference to Advocate General on the Bombay reference in the matter
